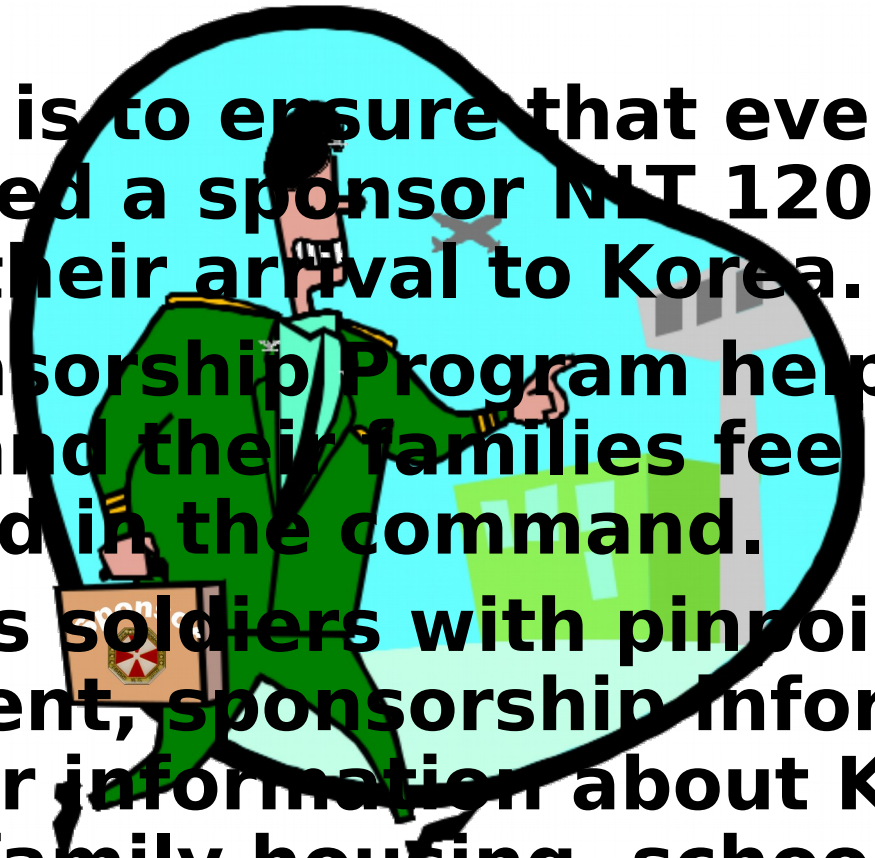
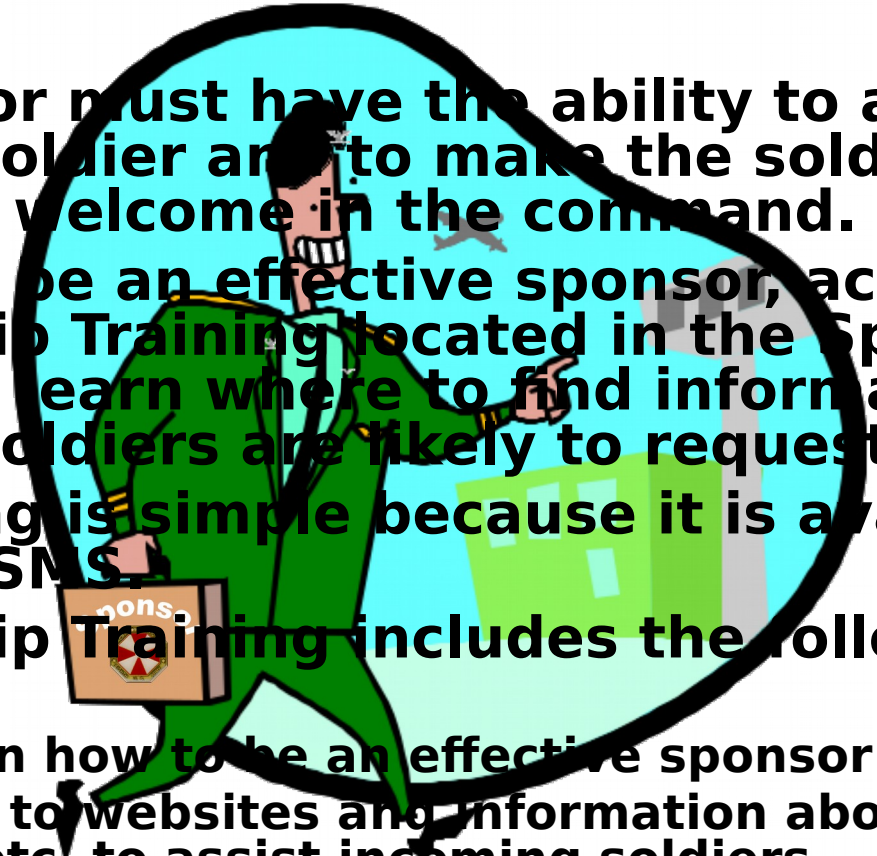
Sponsorship Module Overview



- The goal is to ensure that every soldier is assigned a sponsor NLT 120 days prior to their arrival to Korea.
- The sponsorship Program helps new comers and their families fee welcomed in the command.
- SMS links soldiers with pinpoint assignment, sponsorship information, and other information about Korea such as family housing, schools, hospital, dental facilities, ACS, and etc.

Sponsorship Training



- The sponsor must have the ability to assist the incoming soldier and to make the soldier and family feel welcome in the command.
- In order to be an effective sponsor, access the Sponsorship Training located in the Sponsorship module, to learn where to find information that incoming soldiers are likely to request.
- The training is simple because it is available online via SMS.
- Sponsorship Training includes the following features:
  - Training on how to be an effective sponsor
  - Vital links to websites and information about family housing, etc. to assist incoming soldiers
  - Provides an opportunity to add or update addresses or telephone numbers

To receive sponsor training, click the "Sponsorship Training" icon to train to be a sponsor and obtain access to resource and additional information to assist inbound soldiers.

SMS Sponsor Training Instructions
(7 November 2002)
Welcome to the SMS Sponsor Training Site.The command goal is to ensure that every soldier who arrives in the command is assigned a qualified sponsor.The sponsor must have the ability to assist the incoming soldier and to make the soldier and family feel welcome in the command.You never get a second chance to make a good first impression.
The SMS Sponsor Training Site is intended to help you learn the responsibilities of being a sponsor, things you can do to make the transition easier for incoming soldiers and their families, and provides resources to assist you in quickly locating information that might be requested by an incoming soldier.
All information entered into the system is encrypted.This means that no one who does not have the proper permission to access the information will be able to see it.
This Instruction covers only the SMS Sponsor Training Site.It is intended to provide a detailed look at what the SMS Sponsor Training Site is, what it does, your responsibilities as a sponsor and complete step by step operating instructions.
Most screens in the application have a main screen title that is underlined.Any time help specific to a particular screen is needed, click on the underlined title.A separate help screen will display offering specific guidance on the current screen.Once the help has been reviewed, click on the X button in the upper right corner of the help window to return to the original screen.

SMS SPONSOR TRAINING PROGRAM QUIZ

INSTRUCTIONS: This quiz will be used to assess your understanding of your responsibilities under the sponsorship program. Click the button next to the most appropriate answer for each question. When you have completed the quiz, press the Continue button at the bottom of the form.

1. You must perform all sponsor duties on your own time and resources, not during duty hours. ○ TRUE ○ FALSE
2. A sponsor should be the person the newcomer will replace. ○ TRUE ○ FALSE
3. As a sponsor, you should contact incoming personnel: ○ A ○ B ○ C
   A. Never.
   B. As soon as possible.
   C. Only after they arrive and have inprocessed.
4. If you don't know how to respond to a question or concern the newcomer has, just ignore it. If it is really important, they will keep asking. ○ TRUE ○ FALSE
5. As a sponsor, you are only concerned with incoming personnel and not their family members. ○ TRUE ○ FALSE
6. Unaccompanied and single personnel need just as much information and assistance as accompanied personnel. ○ TRUE ○ FALSE
7. Once you have taken the newcomers to their temporary lodging, your responsibilities as a sponsor end. If they are hungry, need to use the ATM or wondering how they will get to the inprocessing center the next morning, tell them they are on their own. ○ TRUE ○ FALSE
8. Newcomers on their first assignment to EUSA may require extra assistance. ○ TRUE ○ FALSE
9. You never get a second chance to make a positive first impression. You should help newcomers settle in and feel welcome in their new assignment. ○ TRUE ○ FALSE
10. You either had no sponsor or a sponsor who was not helpful when you came to

Sponsor Welcome Letter for SSG FRAN,
Dear SSG DIANE
You will be assigned a sponsor within the next few days. Please check this web site again for the information about your sponsor. You may also enter your email address at the end of this letter to receive information about your sponsor electronically. A copy of your information will be sent to the Sponsorship Coordinator of your new unit to ensure that your needs are met. Until your sponsor is assigned, we can provide you with the following general information.
If you want to get some detail information, check out Assignment Information.
If you are single or will be serving an "unaccompanied" tour, you may contact the first sergeant or unit orderly room to secure a Bachelor Enlisted Quarters(BEQ) or Bachelor Officer Quarters(BOQ)room.
If you are bringing family members with you on this tour, ensure that they have all been screened through the Exceptional Family Member Program and have been cleared for travel to the community prior to your departure overseas. If you have family members who are not American citizens, you must check with the appropriate consulate to ensure that your foreign national family members have the proper documentation to enter and reside in the country to which you are being assigned during your overseas tour.
The command goal is to ensure that your PCS move to 8th US ARMY is made as smoothly as possible.
Again, welcome to the Camp Coiner Military Community
